

‘Escape to the country’

Often people are surprised when dual qualified solicitor and doctor, John White, reveals his passion as a rider and horsey socialite. As a partner in a law firm John has an intense career as a clinical negligence lawyer, six years ago he booked a ride at Wimbledon Village Stables to enjoy some down time in the fresh air. “The scenery was stunning and it was such a wonderful view from horseback, I was hooked” smiles John who has been a member of the stables ever since. “After a morning ride I arrive at work in a great mood and raring to go. All challenges seem possible.”

It’s not only the fabulous riding on offer that makes WVS such a special place for John, the busy social calendar adds a unique twist to the family run London riding school. “There’s a lovely atmosphere at the stables, you really feel part of something special. Everyone is united by a love of horses and the outdoors.”

“The highlight of the social season is the Annual Charity Ball, but there’s something for everyone in the social calendar”

John is the proud Chair of the WVS Events Committee which oversees the many enjoyable events run at WVS. “We take our horsey social life very seriously”, laughs John; “We know the importance of throwing a good party!”

The highlight of the social season is the Annual Charity Ball, but there’s something for everyone in the social calendar including BBQ’s, a pub quiz, member’s drinks and trips out to events.

John also takes pride in hosting guest speakers at the stables. Celebrity visitors include presenter Clare Balding, Olympian Mary King and Olympic coach Yogi Briesner. All of whom have been fantastic fun and truly inspirational.

“There are layers to life as a horse rider and there is so much more on offer than just the riding” If you, like John, They would like to extend your social circle whilst enjoying the great outdoors, why not book a ride at Wimbledon Village Stables? ■

For further information please visit www.wvstables.com or call 0208 946 8579. www.wvstables.com. www.equicise.co.uk. 0208 946 8579